GERMANY PLANS A FOREIGN LOAN AS THE PRELIMINARY

Government Makes Many Promises if a Moratorium Be Extended with Foreign Gold

MARK STABILIZATION ONLY A PROBABILITY

Wishes to Reorganize Government Enterprises on a Productive Basis

(Associated Press)

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The German note to the reparations commission, made public here today, contends that final stabilization of the mark can only be possible after the reparations question has been definitely settled in accordance with Germany's capacity to pay.

Since Germany cannot await such a final settlement, she proposes a provisional one; but even to achieve this, foreign assistance must be forthcoming. The Reichbank is declared to be in readiness to place 500,000,000 gold marks at the disposal of the government for the purpose of stabilization.

The project, it is set forth, depends upon the following conditions:

First, Germany must be freed for three or four years from all payments in cash or in kind under the treaty of Versailles, although she will continue to make deliveries in kind for the devastated areas so far as these do not entail any increase in her floating debt.

Second, Germany considers she should receive a minimum of 500,000,000 gold marks from foreign banks.

The foregoing conditions the Reichbank considers necessary prior to giving the gold from its reserve. The money to be advanced by the Reichbank will be administered by an independent board. When the progress of stabilization is sufficiently advanced the German government will issue an international gold loan.

Half the proceeds of the international loan and the full yield from the foreign loans will be utilized to cover the payments in cash and in kind due under the Versailles treaty, and the other half of the proceeds of the international loan will be applied to the requirements of Germany's own budget.

These measures, it is declared, will enable Germany to balance her budget, check the increase in her floating debt and discontinue discounting treasury bills with the Reichbank.

Germany moreover states that she will abolish all dispensable departments, reduce the number of officials, avoid unproductive expenditure, restrict legislation entailing additional expenditure and reorganize the government enterprises on a productive basis.

Germany will take all requisite measures to increase production while retaining the eight hour day as the normal working day and will restrict the importation and consumption of luxuries and alcohol.

CRASH FOLLOWED PISTOL'S REPORT

Brokerage Firm Went to the Wall After Its Head Had Sent Bullet into Brain

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The financial affairs of the stock brokerage firm of Wasserman Brothers collapsed dramatically today after the head of the firm, Joseph A. Wasserman, had committed suicide in his uptown home.

Shortly before last midnight a maid found Wasserman lying partly submerged in his bath tub with a bullet in his brain and a revolver nearby. He had left several letters, among them one to his wife in Germany, from whom he had been separated, bidding her goodbye and saying he "could see no other ending." A few hours later he died.

At noon today the failure of Wasserman Brothers was announced from the rostrum of the New York Stock Exchange. Shortly thereafter co-partners in the concern, fearing a run of creditors, accepted without protest the appointment of a receiver in an involuntary petition in bankruptcy.

Liabilities are $750,000 with assets of about $500,000.

HARDING TO PRESS THE SUBSIDY BILL

Discouraging Reports from Congressional Leaders Do Not Deter the President

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Possible addition of railroad legislation to the ship subsidy and other administration measures on the program for the coming winter in congress was indicated today by White House developments.

President Harding was said to have told callers he intended to press the ship subsidy bill strongly in the house next week and also through the senate and this in the face of discouraging reports from republican congressional leaders.

The president also made an appointment with Chairman Cummins of the interstate commerce committee to take up in a few days the question of railroad legislation. Amendment to the Esch-Jummins law to strengthen the railway labor board, possibly by giving it powers to enforce orders upon railroad officials and employees, was reported under contemplation.

The president today made partial plans for the opening next Monday of the extra session of congress. His opening message, which probably will be in the form of a personal address at a joint session next Tuesday, will be very brief, it was said, and will be devoted principally to the ship subsidy bill.

KNIFED SEVEN OF PRISON'S GUARDS

Crazed Mexican in Leavenworth Penitentiary Killed One of the Keepers

(Associated Press)

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 14.—Joe Martinez, Mexican murderer, who shortly before noon today fatally stabbed A. H. Leonard, captain of the guards at the Federal penitentiary here, was said tonight to be in a serious condition in a hospital where he was taken after he had stabbed Leonard and knifed six other guards.

After prisoners had been taken to the barber shop this morning one of them warned William Doidge, a guard, that Martinez was carrying a knife. Doidge demanded the knife. Martinez replied by stabbing the guard.

Joseph Durkin, another guard, approached and attempted to disarm the apparently crazed man. Martinez stabbed him. Captain Leonard then rushed in and tried to obtain the knife. Martinez stabbed him in the heart. Captain Leonard staggered a few feet and fell.

"He got me," Leonard said to a fellow officer.

By this time other guards had been attracted to the scene. Martinez was stabbing right and left. He knifed guards Martin Lengyel, George Logan, M. P. Dunkel and James Galvin. The last two named were only slightly wounded.

The condition of Doidge, Lengyel and Durkin, while serious, is not thought to be critical.

IRVING ACQUITTED KIDNAPING CHARGE

(Associated Press)

TENARKANA, Nov. 14.—Hugh Irving, tried in the Bowie county criminal district court today on a charge of kidnaping and false imprisonment in connection with the seizure of G. R. Arrington by masked men here on the night of April 29 last, was acquitted by a jury today.

A similar case against Carvel Bonham was dismissed by order of the court.

WOMEN ARRESTED FOR PICKETING BRITISH OFFICE

Widow of Terence MacSwiney Elected to Go to Jail and Declined to Give Bond

MARCHED IN PROTEST FREE STATE ACTION

Pamphlets Declared That Free State Is Merely the Make-shift of Great Britain

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney, widow of Terence MacSwiney, the lord mayor of Cork, who died in prison on a hunger strike, and two others of nine women arrested for picketing the British embassy today elected to remain in the house of detention overnight and refused bond for their appearance at a hearing before a United States commissioner tomorrow.

The other six accepted bond furnished by Thomas W. Lyons, national secretary of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, of which the women are members. Remaining with Mrs. MacSwiney were Mrs. Mary Ann Nolan of Jacksonville, Fla., who is over 80 years of age, and Miss Minnie Kearney.

The arrests were made soon after the women started their demonstration in protest at the detention of Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of Terence, who is a prisoner of the Irish Free State.

The police in taking them into custody acted under a Federal statute by order of United States Attorney Gordon after they had issued a warning against picketing the embassy.

The women refused to heed the warning and armed with banners protesting the imprisonment of Miss MacSwiney marched to the embassy on Connecticut avenue and swung around the building. When they returned to the front entrance they were arrested by a squad of police and taken to headquarters where bail was fixed at $500 each.

The arrests were made without commotion, the women laughing and chatting with the police who seized their banners while a number of newspaper men who had been informed in advance of the proposed demonstration looked on as practically the only witnesses.

Before entering police headquarters Mrs. MacSwiney succeeded in calling a halt and being photographed with the banners waving over her head.

Mrs. MacSwiney was garbed in black and bore a banner which read: "English murdered my husband, Terence MacSwiney. Will Americans permit the English Free State to murder his sister, Mary MacSwiney?"

Other banners read: "English efficiency. Terence MacSwiney killed in 74 days. Mary MacSwiney 7 days." "The Free State is England's smoke screen." "Will America permit England to murder another MacSwiney?"

All the women arrested with the exception of Mrs. MacSwiney and Mrs. Nolan gave their address as Washington.

Mrs. Nolan was arrested in a suffrage demonstration here several years ago and refusing bail was held in jail several days.

John F. Finerty, president of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, who was retained by the women as counsel, stated tonight that they would plead not guilty at the hearing tomorrow on the grounds that they had violated no laws.

Mrs. MacSwiney has been in this country several months and recently completed a lecture tour in favor of the Irish republican movement headed by Eamonn De Valera. A few days ago she was ill in Virginia and today appeared pale and wan.

Apparently no notice was taken of the demonstration by the British embassy officials. Some time before the picketers arrived, Ambassador Geddes emerged smiling from his office, crossed the street and shook hands cordially with Captain Flatley, in command of the police detail. Since the demonstration of two years ago a police officer has patrolled continuously the environs of the embassy.

A DAY IN TAFT'S LIFE

VACCINATION RULES MUST BE OBSERVED

United States Supreme Court Upholds Power of the State and Municipal Boards

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The power of the State of Texas to provide for compulsory vaccination of its residents and the delegation of such power to a municipality to determine the regulations under which it shall be applied, were sustained by the United States supreme court in affirming the decision of the Fourth Supreme Judicial District Court of Texas, in the case of Rosalyn Zucht against W. A. King and other officials of San Antonio.

The suit was entered by A. D. Such as next friend, in the District Court of Bexar county, which action followed the exclusion of the plaintiff from the schools in San Antonio owing to failure to be vaccinated.

The authority for the regulation is based upon a grant of the San Antonio charter, and was carried out by city ordinance providing that no child or other persons shall attend a public school or other place of education without having first presented a certificate of vaccination.

Suit was brought against King and others, the plaintiff contending there was no occasion for vaccination; and the ordinance deprived the plaintiff of liberty without due process by making vaccination compulsory, and that the ordinance itself was void because it left discretion in the board of health of the city to determine when and under what circumstances the requirement shall be enforced and without providing safeguards against partiality and oppression.

The District court of Bexar county sustained a general demurrer, whereupon appeal was taken to the Fourth District Court and the trial court was there affirmed.

The State Supreme Court declined to issue a writ of certiorari, but granted a writ of error which then brought the case to the United States Supreme court.

In affirming the State Court, Justice Brandeis held that in the case of Jacobson against Massachusetts the Supreme court had settled that it is within the police power of a State to provide for compulsory vaccination and that this power could be delegated to a city for the promulgation of regulations under which the law should become operative.

The court held that the claim of the plaintiff that the ordinance might permit discrimination in such a way as to deny equal protection of the laws did not affect the validity of the ordinance and dismissed the writ of error.

GERMAN MINISTRY RESIGNED BECAUSE OF THE SOCIALIST

Refusal of the Party to Join the Coalition Forced Wirth to Step Down

BRINGS A CRISIS IN AFFAIRS OF COUNTRY

Socialists Opposed to the Government Program on Reparation and Stabilization

(Associated Press)

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—The cabinet of Chancellor Wirth resigned tonight after the united socialists had voted not to participate in a coalition ministry which included members of the German peoples' party.

Dr. Joseph Wirth has been the Chancellor of Germany since November 10, 1921, when he took the head of the government on the resignation of the Konstantin Fehrenbach. The Wirth cabinet tendered its resignation on October 22, 1922 but was reformed with a new personnel headed by Wirth, two days later.

For some time Dr. Wirth has faced troublous times owing to his ministry's program with regard to reparations, the stabilization of the mark and the general economic and international and external questions, to which the parties in the reichstag objected.

A re-organization of the cabinet has been in contemplation for several weeks, but the stumbling block was encountered in obtaining a working agreement between the socialists and the peoples' party.

President Ebert last Friday authorized the chancellor to enter into immediate negotiations with the leaders of the various parties in the reichstag with the purpose of inaugurating steps for the early re-organization of the cabinet.

The action of the president was in accordance with Dr. Wirth's desire to extend the basis of his cabinet ministry with a view to increasing its parliamentary prestige. The authorization had been deferred until the reparations commission had concluded its inquiry into the German situation in Berlin last week.

Late in October the reichstag voted a recess of two weeks in order that the differences between the members of the cabinet regarding the adoption of measures calculated to prevent a further slump in the mark and to straighten out other matters which presaged a crisis. The United Socialists had openly expressed their impatience with the other coalition parties in connection with their attitude relative to financial and economic problems, especially the grain regulation bill and the government's failure to adopt prompt measures to curb speculation in the dollar.

Some of the liberal newspapers professed to see in the attitude of radicals an unmistakable sign of a "tired feeling" upon the part of the socialists and an obvious desire to withdraw from the coalition with the purpose of re-entering the reichstag arena as an opposition factor.

Today the so-called democratic party addressed a letter to Chancellor Wirth declaring the stabilization of the mark was the most urgent question of German policy and that the party would participate in a new cabinet only if it energetically pursued such a policy.

A dispatch from Berlin said that the fate of the Wirth government now seemed to depend on the chancellor's ability to effect an early reconciliation between the united socialists and the German peoples' party by inducing the latter to make a specific attitude on the stabilization program demanded by the radicals.

The navy department, the budget bureau and Chairman Kelley's sub-committee, conducting the hearing were in full accord on the enlisted personnel ($8,000) and the same number of ships as are now in commission.

The construction program will continue and the question of scrapping holds over until all the powder have ratified the naval treaty.

It was understood the total appropriation asked for would be somewhat in excess of the $298,000,000 shown on the face of the last bill, principally because there was an unexpended balance on hand of $46,000,000 July 1, due to the cessation of construction at the time of the arms conference.

BRITISH ELECTION TO BE HELD TODAY

No Campaign Issue of Moment and Electors Are Puzzled As How to Vote

(Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The most important election campaign in modern times and also the most orderly, for there has been but little of the usual accompaniment of disorderly or interrupted meetings, came to an end tonight with the leading figures in the struggle engaged in speech making up to the last moment.

The campaign has been unique in that there is not a great clear-cut question before the public; therefore the electors who will record their votes tomorrow must be in a puzzled mood, for not only is there no outstanding issue but, in the present perplexing divided condition of the political parties, they cannot base their decisions on mere party predilections.

The election canvassers confess themselves hopelessly unable to make forecasts on account of the unprecedented reticence of the electors concerning their preferences. This is usually attributed to the desire to hide their sentiments but it more likely is due to the fact that the electors themselves are unable to express an opinion where there are no plain issues.

Proclamation

It is not only my duty but a pleasure to commend to the citizens of Paris and Lamar county the annual call of the RED CROSS, and urge that each and every one respond with such amounts as they may feel able to contribute.

It is a well known fact that the RED CROSS is one of the great American institutions concerning which there can be no division of sentiment. Whether succoring the war wounded, or healing the scars left by military conflict it ever is the same, its immeasurable value, its dependability, its constancy of service is unchanged.

In war and in peace the AMERICAN RED CROSS is immovably enshrined in every true American heart. May the ROLL CALL of 1922 bring to this beloved institution the voluntary whole-hearted support which it so richly deserves.

The PARIS CHAPTER will devote practically its whole time to aiding and assisting Ex-Service men and their families in our County and City.

I desire, therefore, to call your especial attention to the RED CROSS ROLL CALL, which began on Armistice Day and will end on THANKSGIVING DAY, NOVEMBER 30TH and to urge you to renew your membership, or become members, and to extend any other aid you may feel able to contribute to this organization, and I further desire to set apart NOVEMBER 16, 17 and 18 as special days for the campaign in behalf of the RED CROSS in PARIS and vicinity.

TO BE NO CUT IN APPROPRIATIONS

Naval Bill Will Go Through Without Anything Being Said About Scrapping

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Judged by the headway made today by the house sub-committee on appropriations which will frame it, next year's navy budget will sail through untroubled seas.

There was no indication at the close of the first hearing behind closed doors of another fight like that which marked the passage of the bill last spring.

The navy department, the budget bureau and Chairman Kelley's sub-committee, conducting the hearing were in full accord on the enlisted personnel ($8,000) and the same number of ships as are now in commission.

The construction program will continue and the question of scrapping holds over until all the powder have ratified the naval treaty.

NINE MILLIONS PRO ENFORCEMENT

Commissioner Haynes Will Ask Congress to Largely Increase His Force

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A sub-committee, on which Chairman Madden of the general committee is in charge, heard representatives of the of the internal revenue bureau as to the needs for the next fiscal year.

Prohibition Commissioner Hayes will appear tomorrow for the prohibition bureau to ask for about $9,000,000 for enforcement of the Volstead act and for two hundred additional field workers.

The appropriation for enforcement this year was about $9,250,000.

The treasury bill also is expected to carry about $12,000,000 for refund of income taxes illegally collected. The treasury recently announced that it would ask for $12,000,000 for refunds, and whatever amount is recommended probably will be put into a deficiency bill.

On the opening day of the regular session in December the bill completed measure will be presented to the house. The others will go forward rapidly under a program which calls for a cleanup by the house by the middle of January.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND DEAD IN CHILEAN TOWN FROM QUAKE

Other Towns Were Completely Destroyed by the Tremor and the Tidal Wave

MANY THOUSANDS ARE WITHOUT ANY SHELTER

Families Wander About the Countryside with Neither Food nor Place to Rest

(Associated Press)

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 14.—Each hour brings further details of the great disaster to Chile caused by the earthquake and tidal waves and each new report received from the provinces which suffered the full force of convulsion adds to the list of the dead, and the enormous damage already recorded.

Advices this afternoon from Valparaiso, in the province of Atacama, say that the total dead recovered thus far at that place number 15,000 while the adjoining town of Freinina is in complete ruins, the casualties not being known.

An official compilation by the ministry of the interior based on reports received by that department earlier in the day gave the number of dead in six towns as 886 and the injured at 2410.

These towns were Valparaiso, Copiapo, Copiampo, Huasco, Chanaral and Freinina.

This compilation did not take into account the hundreds of smaller places within the radius of the earthquake, which are virtually shut off from communication because of the breakdown of the telegraph lines.

Twelve hundred miles of the coast line felt in varying degrees the effect of the great tidal waves which followed the earth shocks and for a large proportion of this distance seaports, towns and villages were inundated.

Now nearly four days after the disaster, thousands of families are wandering about the countryside. Their distress is great for they have little clothing and few supplies.

RED CROSS CALL HELP CHILEANS

Tender of Assistance Following the Destructive Earthquake Made by Harding

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Harding in a cablegram to President Alessandri of Chile, made public today, offers assistance to the people of Chile, who suffered from the earthquake catastrophe.

"I am shocked to learn of the terrible catastrophe which has befallen your country, causing so great a loss of life and property," President Harding said. "My countrymen join with me in extending heartfelt sympathy in this hour of widespread suffering and national grief."

"The American Red-Cross" will hold itself in readiness to render such assistance as may be in its power; and I beg that your excellency will not hesitate to let me know if this organization can serve the people of the stricken districts in any way."

Counsel Delchman at Valparaiso said in his opinion earthquake damage north of Valparaiso was sufficient to warrant financial assistance of the American Red Cross. Many houses were destroyed and families are destitute, the message said, the probable loss of life being 1,000 and wounded number between 4,000 and 5,000 according to official advices he has received. The American consular agent at Coquimbo was said to have been swept by a tidal wave.

The appropriation for enforcement this year was about $9,250,000.

The treasury bill also is expected to carry about $12,000,000 for refund of income taxes illegally collected. The treasury recently announced that it would ask for $12,000,000 for refunds, and whatever amount is recommended probably will be put into a deficiency bill.

THE POWER OF HIS THOUGHT:—As he thinks in his heart, so is he.—Proverbs 23:7.

WHEREIN THE VALUE OF THE FAIR IS SHOWN.

On Armistice Day there was further demonstration of the fact that the Lamar fair is a great public institution and that it is to the interest of every citizen of Lamar county that it be supported, expanded and made to function upon even a broader scale.

Such a gathering would not have been possible had it not been for the fact that the fair grounds were available for the gathering of the people. True the barbecue could have been held upon some vacant tract; but not without a great deal of expense and many handicaps. Whereas, by making use of the fair grounds—and that without the charge of a penny by the fair association—there was comfort, convenience and access to facilities which added greatly to the enjoyment of the day.

The management of the fair has ever been ready to donate the use of the grounds for such public occasions, recognizing that it is a public institution and not for private gain.

Indeed, the stockholders of the fair association are making sacrifices as individuals that the public shall have access at all proper times to all the facilities which have been acquired by the fair association whether as a result of the investment of capital of the individual stockholders, or as the further investment of the gate fees paid by the public at the annual exposition.

The Lamar fair should be given support by every citizen of the county and if that support be accorded them it will not be very long until the debt has been lifted, the interest payments stopped and the improvements which are imperatively demanded are made—and then there can be a free fair.

But first the revenues must be sufficient for the payment of the debt and for the enlargement of the plant.

An anonymous communication addressed to The News asks: "When is a dry dock?" Under the regularity as they now stand, a dry dock wouldn't be. Those fellows can write their own prescriptions.

Tommy Peete's father stowed away the gun the two little boys took away from the man who tried to hunt in their Woods and Field, but he didn't keep the hunter's red dog. Not after it had fallen in love with Louise Thompson down at Dr. Muskrat's Pond.

It followed him up the lane without turning its head to see where its owner had gone. And it wagged a contented tail when Louise tied it up to the barrel where Tommy's dog, Watch, was supposed to sleep. (He never really stayed that far away from Tommy, so he didn't mind.) "This is like home," it told Watch as it settled down. "But what's this chain for? I'd rather be able to sniff around and get used to things. I don't like chickens. Honest I don't."

"Seems like they think you'll go back to your man," Watch explained. "They want to make him come for you."

"Don't let him!" moaned the red dog. "Don't let him! Please! I'll be so good if you'll only keep me here. Don't give me back to him. You saw him kick me—that wasn't the first time. He'd have killed me time and again if I had not cost him so much. I won't go with him. I won't stay if he does come and take me away. I'm Louise's dog, that's whose dog I am."

Before Watch could answer out came Louise with a great big dish. It was Tommy Peete's mother who fixed it, but it was Louise who did the feeding. And it was Louise who came back for three separate good-bys before he started off for his own supper.

Then didn't the red dog raise a row! This wasn't home to him if it wasn't home to Louise Thompson.

"Take me!" it howled. "Wait, wait!" It tried to follow, barrel and all.

"Wurr, wurr!" warned Watch kindly. "That won't work. I've tried it myself. Clean up your dish while Tommy's looking. Pretend to forget. If you don't let folks know what you want to do how can they stop you from doing it?"

If Tommy knew what I'm going to do he'd think about it. Don't make him think about it. The poor beast stopped whining and jerking and crawled meekly into the barrel. But not till Tommy was safe in the house, with the door shut behind him, did Watch whisper, "Now come on. I don't blame you a bit. I'd rather have Louise myself if I didn't have Tommy for my very own. So I'll show you a trick I learned from Trailer the Hound. Scratch your collar half way round. Now pull, tail first. Scratch hard. There!"

"Ourch!" gasped the dog, his eyes popping. "Ow-w-w! I'm free. I'm free!" Of he raced after Louise without even stopping for thanks.

SMALL LOAN BANK IN PARIS PLANNED

To Be Operated Under What Is Known as the 'Three Indorsement' System

A. H. Lirette of Beaumont is in Paris to organize an institution similar to the Morris Plan Bank on a system known as the remedial loan system. The plan of operation is the same used and adopted by the Russell Sage Foundation, founded by Mrs. Russell Sage when she donated millions toward the investigation of the loan shark throughout the United States.

The Paris industrial bank will in every way be beneficial to the community when operating and is very highly endorsed by some of the largest houses in the country.

It affords the wage earner of character the opportunity to borrow on the "three indorsement plan" at the legal rate of interest for small loans.

The institution will be a Texas corporation, capitalized at $25,000 divided into 250 shares par value $100 each. It is proposed to seek interest as many business men as possible in the plan.

Subscribers will be limited to no more than ten shares will be allotted to any one person.

The various banks of Paris will act as trustees for the funds until the organization is completed.

FOUND WEEVIL GRUBS IN THE GREEN BOLLS

J. E. Barber of the Lincoln community seven miles south of town, who was in the city yesterday, said that anybody who wants to know where the boll weevils stay during the winter can just examine the half-grown green bolls that are knocked off in plowing up the stalks.

He said that he found four grubs, all alive, in one little old green boll. He was plowing up the stalks to rake and burn them and when the mules knocked off a hole he picked it up and examined it and found the grubs.

Mr. Barber said that a lot of people are cutting stalks in the old-fashioned way and are having slides made with knives made on them to cut them and rake and burn after they have dried.

CONDITION OF VICTIMS OF AUTO ACCIDENT

The condition of Otto Lauderdale, one of the two brothers who were injured in an automobile accident on Lamar avenue and Thirtieth street Monday morning, was reported unimproved yesterday. He is still unconscious most of the time and when he regains consciousness at intervals it is only for a short while. The extent of his injuries can not be determined, but it is said that his recovery will be slow and a question of time.

His younger brother, Frank, who had a leg broken is said to be getting along well, but is suffering considerable pain from bruises, as well as from the broken limb.

OFFICER SHORT SUMMONED TO BROTHERS BEDSIDE

Officer Billy Short was summoned to the country yesterday to attend the bedside of his brother, Sam Short, a well known farmer of the Shady Grove community who is running a store there. VALUE OF FAIR IS DEMONSTRATED

Armistice Day Celebration Is an Object Lesson of Service Rendered

To The Morning News:

As a citizen of Lamar county, interested in its welfare, I read with much interest your account of the Armistice day celebration and also agreed with everything said.

It is encouraging and speaks well for us that we should have had such a splendid celebration and such good fellowship, and good to another.

In reflecting over this day, one matter of importance has come to my mind that I wonder if the general public understands.

What would Paris have done and where could such a barbecue, races, dance, etc., have been held if we hadn't the free use of the Lamar County Fair Association property?

A splendid park ground, race track, football field, and a magnificent coliseum and everything free.

It has come to my knowledge recently that the Lamar County Fair is heavily in debt. They have made wonderful improvements, by working day and night, without profit to any individual connected therewith to give to the people of Lamar county a fair.

It is my understanding that the capital stock of the fair will have to be raised to meet these obligations or the fair abandoned.

Where will Paris entertain her visitors? Where can we make our friends welcome? Do we want the fair to be abandoned and not have such a meeting place?

This is the first time that I ever wrote and addressed an article to a newspaper. I consider this so important that I want all to think about it and I am wondering if some one won't offer a suggestion or an answer to the question, "How can we help the Fair Association and keep this splendid park and wonderful buildings for the free use of our citizens?"

CONTRACTORS SUPPLIED WITH ABUNDANT WATER

City Engineer M. C. Welborn states that there was three inches of water caught at the city lake from Sunday until yesterday morning. When the lake was a large body of water three inches would represent much more than it does reduced to its present extent. The water that was caught, he said, will last about three days, and if it doesn't rain any more by next Sunday the city will be back to where it was before the rain.

As a result of the rain, however, it will not be necessary for the contractors of the new reservoir embankment to use water from the city mains to wet down the dirt, as it has been doing recently on account of the holes in Pine creek failing.

Mr. Welborn stated that all of the water necessary was caught in the new reservoir to enable the contractors to finish the job. They won't have to use the city water any more.

Office Deputy Sheriff Clay Leclair, who looks after the jail, stated last night that there are at present 74 inmates of the institution which is one more prisoner than the jail has ever contained at one time before.

HOOVER ADVISES A RATE RECONSTRUCTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Need for a reconstruction of the railroad rate structure of the country—in some cases with upward adjustments—will be brought to the attention of congress by Secretary Hoover, it is understood, in his forthcoming annual report. Some relief both to the railways and to the farmers, in the secretary's view, may be obtained through such a reorganization.

TREATED FATHER-IN-LAW TO BIRTHDAY SUPPER

L. W. Dewese, an old resident of Lamar county, reached the seventy-seventh mile post of life's journey last Friday, and while nearly everybody else was getting ready for the big Armistice celebration it occurred to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Dewese, to treat him to a surprise birthday supper, she and her husband being near neighbors to him on Lamar avenue.

There was no extended invitation list, the supper being prepared for the honoree to enjoy, and the only ones present were his other son, Mayor J. W. Dewese and family.

Mr. Dewese has been a resident of Lamar county many years, most of which time he has farmed in the Birdtown community, and he has many friends among the old timers who have always liked him for his companionable and genial ways.

SHOCKING DEATH OF FARMER'S SON

Choked by Line About His Neck
Catching on the Drum of Stalk Cutter

Charlie, the 12-year-old son of W. P. Womack, a tenant on the E. K. Gunn farm between Deport and Cunningham, met with a shocking death last Saturday while he was in the field cutting stalks. He was alone at the time, but from the position in which his body was found and from other circumstances it is supposed that while driving he had the line around his neck and that one of them dropped through the seat and caught on the blade of the cutter which wound around and drew him down until he was choked to death. He was dragged down on the tongue.

what was the matter. They found the boy dead with his head dragged down against the tongue of the cutter and with a line around his neck and the other wrapped around the drum as described. The hunters started to the house to notify Mr. Womack of his boy's death and met him coming out to the field to see how he was getting along cutting stalks.

STREAMS START RUNNING FROM SAP IN TREES

W. T. McCarty, a well known farmer of the Brookston community, who is a diversifier, was in the city yesterday and expressed gratification at the rain. He said that it not only relieved a great many farmers from the burden of hauling stock water and putting the ground in condition to plow, but it helped the timber by causing it to put on vigorous growth. If it hadn't rained in two or three weeks, however, the ground would have been in better condition for plowing than it was just before the rain, and he was waiting for the ground to get in shape without a rain.

He said that as soon as frost came the land would plow good because sap from the timber would go down in the ground and streams and branches would go to running. Back in the old States, he said, he has seen many a time branches and streams that had gone dry go to running when there was not a drop of rain.

Some folks, he said, who don't know about it will think it a big fish lie, but it is a fact.

All of them came up in Mr. Sisson's private car and after spending a few hours here, returned to Fort Worth in the afternoon.

Mr. Sisson, vice president of the lines in Texas, it is said, will become a general vice president of the company with headquarters in St. Louis, taking the place of T. A. Hamilton, who has been elected as president of the International and Great Northern railroad.

Time to Face the Facts

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years doctoring with six different doctors, without results, for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicitis and other ailments, I was said to possess. I was encouraged to try May's Wonderful Remedy seeing what it had done for a friend of mine similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble and am sure this medicine will do all and more than is claimed for." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Palace Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

Ten Commandments for the Modern Father and Mother

By Rev. P. R. Knickerbocker

For the Mother

1. Thou shalt have no other man except thy husband; neither shalt thou eye another.
2. Thou shalt not neglect thy home for club or bargain sale or suffragette propaganda or any female meeting place whatsoever.
3. Thou shalt not be a peach on the street, a pippin in society and a lemon in the home.
4. Thou shalt not wear $50 bonnets and imported lingerie when thy husband wears five cent socks and hand me down trousers; neither shalt thy husband's nose be kept to the grindstone perpetually until he is a broken and beaten old man.
5. Thou shalt not play bridge or whist for prizes or valuable consideration; neither shalt thou sip the sparkling glass, on pain of thy son's damnation.
6. Thou shalt use the blandishments on thy husband that thou didst use on thy sweetheart and he shall always be thy lover.
7. Thou shalt not nag thy husband nor thy son nor thy daughter nor the servant within thy house.
8. Thou shalt suffer the little children to come and forbid them not, for the sweetest name is mother and holy shall it be and thy sons and thy daughters shall rise up and call thee blessed.
9. Thou shalt not neglect to pray for thy children; neither shalt thou neglect to spank them as occasion demands.
10. Thou shalt not rear thy children by proxy, but thou thyself shalt be their mother and shalt lead them in the way they shall go and when they are old they will not depart from it.

For the Father

1. Thou shalt be the husband of one wife and thou shalt not ask for another by divorce or other devilish means.
2. Thou shalt not neglect home for club or fraternity or politics or any cause whatsoever.
3. Thou shalt not give the cream of thy life to business, its milk to thy friends and leave only the blue john for thy home.
4. Thou shalt not compel thy wife to ask for every needed penny like a whining beggar on the streets but thou shalt give her an adequate allowance, remembering thy sworn word, "With all my worldly goods I thee endow."
5. Thou shalt not help thyself first to the breast of the chicken and give thy wife and children the neck and the legs, neither shalt thou wear silk, smoke Havana cigars, while wife wears last year's bonnets and smokes over the cook stove.
6. Thou shalt kiss thy wife at least once a day and tell her she is beautiful and lovable and she shall be and thy life shall be one long sweet song.
7. Thou shalt not drink red liquor, sit in at poker or play the ponies on pain of thy son's damnation.
8. Thou shalt not neglect old-fashioned discipline, neither shalt thou be a tyrant.
9. Thou shalt not neglect the education of thy children in order that they may help thee bear the burden of support, for their best heritage shall be a trained mind and a good character.
10. Thou shalt not farm out the religious instruction of thy children to the minister, Sunday school teacher or even their mother for thou art the head of the house and thou thyself shalt instruct them in the path which growth brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

FORTY WINNING PLAYS IN FOOTBALL

By MAJOR EARNEST GRAVES, U. S. Army, Retired and JOHN J. McEWAN, Head Line Coach at West Point

PLAY NO. 29

TRIPLE PASS

Ever since the beginning of the passing game many teams have used a Triple Pass. There are many variations of the play but the features of them all is the passing of the ball three times behind the line of scrimmage before it is sent on its way to a receiver.

Lafayette, in 1921 used a triple pass similar to the one shown above with great success.

The Left End is the man who finally makes the pass and his route is indicated on the diagram. He receives the ball from the No. 4 Back. The Left Tackle, Center, Guards and Right Tackle, hold on this play as long as possible because there is a considerable delay behind the line. The play will be ruined if it is interrupted behind the line of scrimmage.

The Right End goes down and then turns to the right and receives the pass. He goes deep on this play.

The No. 1 Back starts toward the right as if for an end run and then stops to protect the passer.

The No. 2 Back slides out toward the left into the flat territory to receive.

The No. 3 Back receives the ball from the center and starts toward the right as if for a run around the right end. He slips the ball to the No. 4 Back at the indicated point, continues to run for a few steps and then stops to protect the passer.

The No. 4 Back from his position behind the right end starts toward the rear and receiving the ball from the No. 3 Back slips it to the Left End who in the meantime has come around to the indicated position.

The Left End then takes a step or two toward the right, stops and makes the pass. He may pass to either the right end or the No. 2 Back. The pass to the right end is the preferable one because the gain will be longer if the pass is completed and the danger less if the ball is intercepted.

There is a complication about all of these triple passes which make them difficult of execution. The ball has to be exchanged three times behind the line of scrimmage and that is a very difficult thing for a team to do when it is hard pressed.

It is a play to be held in reserve until the proper moment for its execution arrives. The reward for the clever execution usually justifies the time and labor expended in working it up to a point of efficiency. A strong line is necessary in this play in order to hold back the opposing forwards until the pass can be made.

CEREMONIAL OF THE JOPPA GROTTTO

First Is to Be Held on the Last Tuesday in November with Many Novitiates

A regular meeting of Joppa Grotto was held last night at the Masonic temple and there was agreement upon most of the details for the ceremonial which is to be held in Paris November 28.

The Grotto is an organization similar to the Shrine; with the notable exception that while the Shrine is confined to the Scottish Rite Masons who have advanced to the 32d degree and to Knights Templar, the Grotto is open to every Mason.

In intent, purpose and plans the Grotto and the Shrine are very similar.

Most people are familiar with the Shrine and with the efforts of Paris Masons to secure a temple. Falling in that, the Grotto has been organized in Paris; and it is believed that it will serve in every way the original plan for the Shrine temple.

The first big ceremonial is to be held on Tuesday, November 28, and it is to be a full day. Already enrolled either as members of Joppa Grotto or as candidates for the degrees are Masons from 28 towns outside of Paris; these coming from a territory extending from Broken Bow on the north, DeKalb on the east, Terrell on the south and Denison to the west, and after the Grotto really attains its fame this territory will be extended.

On the 28th there is to be a parade which will be staged at 12:30. This parade will have features in it which will equal those of any Shrine parade ever formed in the State—and that without reference to the size of the town. The Armistice Day parade was one kind—the Grotto parade will be of another. It will be worth the travel to see it.

The candidates (who are known as novitiates among the elect) will register at 10 in the morning of the 28th at the headquarters in the Wise building on South Main street. That part of the matter will be completed by noon; and then the parade will be formed with the Grotto band and patrol in their new uniforms in the lead.

At 2 o'clock the ceremonial will begin at the Grand theater. The first part will last for an hour and a half; and there will be costumes and scenery as have not been surpassed in any fraternal order in the Southwest; and that is said with due regard for the fact that there are some very gorgeous ones among the Shriners, Masons, Pythians, Odd Fellows and other fraternal orders in Texas.

At 3:30 there will be the "feast of revels," also in the Grand; and this will last about an hour; following which there will be a rest until dinner is served at 6:30 in the Wise building for all the members of the Grotto.

In the evening there will be a dance for such as care to attend; and other entertainment for those who do not care to either dance or look on at those who do.

The ladies of the Eastern Star, including the wives of the prophets of Joppa Grotto, will be a committee to see after the comfort and entertainment of the visiting ladies; and it is anticipated that there will be a large number of them in attendance.

The first ceremonial having been held, the belief is that there will be no further mourning over the loss of the temple and that it will be realized that Paris is become even more of a Masonic center than would have been possible with the temple.

NO POST SEASON GAME WITH BEARS

The University Faculty Declares
Against the Proposition, Favored by Students

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 14.—A post season football game between the University of Texas and Baylor University, of Waco was definitely ruled against by the varsity athletic council late tonight following a mass meeting of students this afternoon in which resolutions were passed favoring the game providing both teams are undefeated after Thanksgiving day and the game be played either in Waco or Austin.

Pointing out the long standing faculty ruling against such games, the council, composed of both students and faculty members, formally stated that "experience has shown that post season games coming so close to the end of the term and on the heels of a full athletic season inevitably interfere unduly with the scholastic work of the university."

"The present occasion," continues the statement, "would present no exception. A game played on December 9 would fall within the week of the mid-term examinations of the law school and within a week of the final examinations of all the other schools and colleges of the university."

SAFETY MEETING T. P. AND L. MEN

Safety Engineer Rutland an Entertainer as Well as an Instructor

C. J. Rutland, safety engineer of the Texas Power and Light Company, entertained as well as instructed the monthly safety meeting of the Paris District employees last night with a series of lantern slides portraying accidents and accident hazards.

The scope of this work may well be comprehended when considered from the standpoint that instructions regarding the safe guarding from blood poison from a pin scratch to precaution in efficient handling the highest voltage wires are given in the safety books of the company.

A particular warning was given to the public in the matter of the broken or fallen wires. Mr. Rutland suggested that any unusual condition of wires noticed by any person should be immediately reported to some person in the employ of the company. They should not be handled any time by any person unfamiliar with their voltage or service.

The recent fatalities at Lufkin in which the two citizens were killed when they came into contact with a fence across which a live wire had fallen when a pole had blown down during a storm was given as possible illustration. During the winter season ice-laden wires might break. The co-operation of the public in reporting fallen wires, crossed wires or other hazards is appreciated at all times Mr. Rutland said.

Mr. Rutland works in conjunction with the National Safety Council who are engaged in the work of educating the public at large in the protection from all possible kinds of common accidents. This company will place a number of bulletins on safety first rules in the public schools of the city and of nearby towns. These bulletins will include instructions on automobile driving, crossing the streets, fire prevention, and in fact about everything that tends to keep school children out of danger.

It is also thought that instructions will be given in the pre-pressure method of resuscitation. This is one of the most valuable assets to be had in the way of probably saving someone's life. This method has gained national recognition and the head of the largest electric interests of the United States now offers a medal to any employee successfully using it in the restoration and saving of a human life.

The meeting was held in the club dining room of the Gibraltar hotel following an appetizing dinner and a general singing led by W. N. Munroe manager of the Paris district.

REACTION IN THE COTTON MARKET

Prices Went Off Rapidly and Close Was Barely Steady at the Lowest

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A sharp early advance met a great deal of realizing or liquidation in the cotton market today and was followed by rather severe reactions. January contracts sold off from 26.35 to 25.74 or 61 points from the best and 32 points net lower.

That delivery closed at the lowest with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 17 to 45 points.

The market opened firm at an advance of 13 to 33 points on more bullish domestic consumption figures from the census bureau than expected and relatively firm Liverpool cables.

According to the census bureau, consumption of cotton in this country during October was 533,950 bales, compared with 439,317 last year and these figures were regarded pretty close with the bullish report that the domestic requirements for the season would aggregate nearly 7,000,000 bales, including foreign cotton and lint.

The firmness of Liverpool and steadier early ruling of foreign exchange seemed to relieve nervousness over the Near East situation to some extent and the market showed considerable firmness right after the call with December selling at 26.48 and March at 26.31.

This made net advances of 23 to 34 points and carried prices back within 15 or 30 points of the high records established on last Thursday.

Realizing became more active at these figures, and the early afternoon market was weak and unsettled under continued liquidation and scattered selling for a reaction which was promoted by reports of a less active spot demand in the South.

There were also rumors of a slightly easier spot basis which may have contributed to the decline, although they were not confirmed.

December broke to 25.88 and March 25.74 with active months showing net losses of 20 to 37 points.

The opening advance was probably encouraged by reports that the Egyptian crop was officially estimated at 4,002,000 cantars or considerably under earlier figures.

Exports today were 25,057, making 1,705,991 so far this season. Port receipts $2,064. United States port stocks 1,272,318.

HOGS REMAINED STEADY AT UNCHANGED PRICES

FORT WORTH, Nov. 14.—Despite the fact that other markets quoted a decline on hogs, prices here were steady to 10 cents higher. Only 800 head were here and competition was strong. Outside buyers paid 8.45 for two cars and packers made purchases at 8.30. Most of the run cleared at 8.20@8.30.

FEW CATTLE IN AND PRICES REMAINED STEADY

FORT WORTH, Nov. 14.—Moderate receipts were available in the cattle division Tuesday, the count calling for only 1,500 head of cattle and 1,000 calves. Market prices remained fully steady on all classes.

LIQUIDATION SENT BOND PRICES DOWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Bond prices crumbled in all sections of the list in today's bond market in response to further heavy liquidation on the part of large and small interests. Renewed weakness of foreign government securities precipitated the drop to lower ground.

COTTONSEED OIL OFF ON PROFIT TAKING

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Cottonseed oil showed a reversal of form due to efforts to secure profits, and

Billious Children
Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Rhedford's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does its work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Get a package today, and keep it in your house. See selling on stop orders. Crude markets were relatively firm, but the poor showing in lard disturbed holders. Closing prices were near the low of the day and from 29 to 34 points net lower. Sales 32,200 barrels. Prime crude 8.75 asked. Prime summer yellow spot 9.40; Dec. 9.45; March 9.85; May 10.00, all bid.

LONGS LIQUIDATED AND COTTON WENT OFF

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—Wide reactions in cotton occurred today as the result of heavy liquidation from the long side coupled with new selling from operators who were looking for a setback. In the early trading the tone was strong and prices at one time were 32 to 60 points over yesterday's close.

From this there was a slump until prices were 27 to 39 points under yesterday's close and the market closed at the lowest. December traded as high at 26.19 and fell to 25.30, a decline of exactly $4 a bale.

Conditions of the afternoon were the exact opposite from those of the morning. From being extremely firm the market turned extremely soft.

WHEAT UPWARD ON FAVORABLE EXPORT NEWS

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Wheat tended upward in price today with special notice being taken of assertions that an advance in Italian lire during the last 30 days had increased the purchasing power of Italy as much as 30 cents a bushel on wheat. The market closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1/2 cents higher.

December 1.17 1/2 @ 1.17 1/2 and May 1.15 1/2 @ 1.15 1/2. Corn gained 1/4 @ 1 1/4, and oats 1/4 @ 1/4 to 1/2 @ 1/2. In provisions the outcome varied from 15 cents decline to a rise of 10 cents.

COFFEE AT AN ADVANCE ON ADVICES FROM BRAZIL

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The market for coffee futures opened at an advance of 4 to 6 points on covering of a little fresh buying inspired by higher prices in Brazil. The general tone of the market was steady with the close 2 to 6 points net higher. Sales were estimated at 25,000 bags. December 9.58; Jan. 9.48; March 9.27; May 9.04; July 8.80; Sep. 9.40.

Spot coffee steady; Rio 7s 10%; Santos 4s 15@15 1/4.

COTTON GOODS STEADY BUSINESS LESS ACTIVE

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Cotton goods held steady today with business less active. Yarns were firm and quite active. Dress goods also were firm. Some staples were sold up and withdrawn. Silks were steady with the demand for novelty crepes full. Burlaps were steady. Linens showed constant improvement in demand.

NO GREAT CHANGE IN MARKET FOR SUGAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The raw sugar market was quiet and unchanged with spot Cubas quoted at 2 1/2, cost and freight, equal to 5.53 for centrifugal. No sales were reported.

Raw sugar futures were firmer on covering and trade buying. There was no change in refined prices which are listed at 6.90@7.00 for fine granulated.

TICK ERADICATION IN LAMAR COUNTY

Commissioners Undecided As to Carrying It on Through the Winter

The county commissioners court which convened on Monday in quarterly session, spent part of the time yesterday in examining and checking the report of the treasurer.

The court also spent considerable time in discussing fully the tick eradication work in Lamar county with reference to continuation of the dipping during the winter.

The commissioners, it is understood, are figuring on discontinuing the work from the first of December until spring.

J. R. Turlington, State live stock inspector for this district, with headquarters at Paris, was before the commissioners and said that the State sanitary live stock commission was anxious for the work to go on through the winter, although it admits that at times it will be impracticable to dip when the weather is unfavorable.

The commissioners decided to have the dipping carried on until December 1st. They left the matter undetermined as to what they would do beyond that date.

America Leads in Home Comforts

The average American home has more comforts and conveniences than the palaces of Europe. Home for home, the American household has a well-kept look, an atmosphere of prosperity and contentment you cannot find in the homes of any other country in the world.

In foreign lands, the modernized dwelling, as we know it, is found only in limited numbers and then only in the larger cities.

In America, even in remote rural districts, you find pianos, vacuum cleaners, washing machines, up-to-date heating systems, telephones and numberless appliances that go far to make life easier, happier and more worth while.

You may not realize it, but America's high standard of home life is due largely to advertising. For the development of advertising is distinctly American. It has taken its place as a leading force in bringing together the interests and wants of a great, united people. And a large share of the credit for this development is due the newspapers.

Stop and think how many of the appliances you use, the foods you eat, the clothes you wear, and other articles entering into your every-day life, were popularized by newspaper advertising.

Then you will realize what a vital part advertising has played and is playing in your daily life.

You owe it to yourself to read the advertisements.
They mean a lot to you.

IS IT YOUR KIDNEYS?

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles... A Paris Citizen Gives A Valuable Hint

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness;
when in reality the trouble sets in they think that it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. You should realize that these troubles often lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. An effective remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the experience of a resident of Paris, who has tested Doan's.

J. W. North, farmer, 265 W. Sherman street, Paris, says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and pains in the small of my back. When I did any lifting or stooping, the pains were worse. The kidney secretions were too free in passage and I had to get up several times at night to pass the secretions but it wasn't long before Doan's Kidney Pills removed the aches in my back and made my kidneys normal."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same
